

Look-See! This Was the Cement Plant a Year Ago

One year ago last Saturday the announcement was made that the Lawrence Portland Cement Co. had made a contract whereby it was to take over the plant and property of the New England Portland Cement Company in Thomaston and a banquet was held on the premises in honor of the event. The above picture shows how the plant looked at that time, with nothing but the lime kilns in operation. There was no hint of the tremendous transformation which was to take place within a few months and the guns of the skeptics had not been spiked. Today, as shown by an illustration in a recent issue of The Courier-Gazette the new cement plant is so well along toward completion that the kilns may be fired in January and the product will be shipped by the railroad. A miracle has been performed before our face and eyes.

ASKS BIG ALIMONY

Mrs. Joseph Leopold's Story Declared To Be "Fairy Tale," With No End of Luxuries.

The effort of Mrs. Tillie Loeb Leopold, former stenographer, to obtain a Supreme Court award of $1,200 a week alimony and $25,000 counsel fees in her separation suit against Joseph Leopold, quarry owner, was characterized in court by Edmund L. Mooney, counsel for the husband, as "part of a fairy tale in which there was to be no end of luxuries." Mr. Mooney added: "She wants $1,000 a year for cosmetics alone, $2,000 a year for shoes, and she claims to have become divested of a fortune in Wall Street since she filed her suit a month ago. And she used to be a stenographer."

Mrs. Leopold was formerly the wife of Isaac Loeb of Cleveland. They were divorced in Chicago and, according to Mrs. Leopold, her present husband financed the divorce, which Mr. Leopold now attacks as invalid. Mr. and Mrs. Leopold have been married four years. Their quarrels, according to Mr. Mooney, were smoothed over by Mr. Leopold making gifts of diamonds to his wife. Mrs. Leopold brought her action in September, a month after her husband deposited $100,000 in Liberty bonds in the Seaboard National Bank. He was to receive the income for life and the bonds were to go to Mrs. Leopold on his death. Mr. Mooney enumerated other gifts of Mr. Leopold, including $53,600 in stocks and bonds; $15,000 in Liberty bonds, $5,000 in R. H. Macy & Co. shares and a $10,000 mortgage on New Jersey property.

Justice Delehanty reserved decision. Mr. Leopold is the owner of a large granite industry at Vinalhaven, and has been a regular visitor to this city many years.

AN ANCIENT LEDGER

Business Done In This Town One Hundred and Fifty Years Ago.

[By Jarvis C. Perry]

In the rush and turmoil of modern life one scarcely has time to indulge in reminiscences of one's great-grandfather, much less write about him in the hope of interesting others; but there lies before me an honestly bound volume, the contents of which may be of some interest to readers of The Courier-Gazette, especially those belonging to the old stock of hardy pioneers, who pitched their tents during the latter half of the last century in the beautiful region of Knox County. The pages of this musty old book attest the sterling worth of the paper made in the days when everything was genuine, and the British lion rampant indelibly impressed on each leaf tells of its English origin.

The fly leaf in a clear legible hand is "John Crockett, His Book, given him by his grand-father, Nathaniel Crockett, Thomaston, Dec. 25th, 1787." Passed down from generation to generation with jealous care, we, the younger born, are permitted to muse wonderingly over its pages and enjoy with peculiar interest the opportunity of gleaning something from the history of our forefathers.

Jonathan Crockett was born at Falmouth, now Portland, July 24, 1741, and was the father of ten children. John, the eldest, and owner of this book, was born Oct. 27, 1765. Their parents were John and Mary Crockett, and the book is a record of the business done in the town of Falmouth from 1765 to 1787. It shows a small, elegant hand of remarkable smoothness, and a thorough contempt for ruled lines. They doubtless knew the value of a good quill in those days. The first account in this old ledger is that of Jonathan Crockett and related as follows. The figures are in pounds, shillings, and pence.

To a Riding Hood	15	0	0
2 Hatts	3	10	0
Cash 3 Pistereens	1	7	0
1 pr. Calliminn shoes	1	0	0
Lb. of Sugar	2	0	0
The next on account of goods sold to Nathaniel Crockett:
1/2 lb. of Andigo	2	0	0
a Bible	11	0	0
a Teakettle	0	2	5
a Psalm Book	2	5	0
3 pr. of W. shoes for Wife	4	10	0
Nabby & Lydia	0	9	0
1 Fan for Nabby	1	7	0
1 pr. shoes for Polly	1	7	0
1 pair men's shoes for yourself	2	10	0
1 pr. of wool cards	1	2	6
2 pr. of Buckles for Nabby & Lydia	0	16	0
1/2 yds. of Lawn for Borden Cape	0	10	0
2 Black Silk Hatts	4	0	0
3 yds. of Black Ribband for Hatts	0	15	0
Gymp for the Hatts	0	16	0
1 Barsefony handkerchief for Nabby	2	5	0
Small books for David and Polly
1 pr. of sleeve buttons for Lydia	0	1	6
1 set of Tea Cups, etc.	7	6	0
a piece of Tape for Apron	0	7	6
1 bundle of pins	0	7	6
gallon of spirits	9	10	6
1 pr. of garters for Nabby	0	4	6
1 ax for David	1	10	0
1 Sift	2	5	0

Time throws a glamour over the very names of Nabby, Lydia and Polly. We suppose the same joys and sorrows came up to them as they do ours. Characteristic of their sex, they were not without a fine sense of personal adornment and a vivid fancy can picture any one of them decked out in gimp and black ribbands, bordered capes, shoe buckles and white lace, perched on Priscillas of the Puritan regime. An inherent sense of bashfulness forbids the mention of Nabby's garters, though an artistic eye might discern through the mist of years her shapely shoulders enscathed in the Barsefony handkerchief.

Following the accounts of the Crocketts, (who has authority for writing it Crockett?) are those of John Hoza, who taught school at 15 pounds per month, Capt. Lemuel Church, James Philbrook, Jonathan Clark, John Mastich, Elissa Laisell, Anthony and William Dyer and Jno. Calderwood, all current for the year 1768, and who were among the first settlers of what later was to be Knox County. In that year the site now occupied by the beautiful city of Rockland was a dense forest, through which led the Indian trail, and the only structure of any kind then standing within the present city limits was a log hut erected by one Reed, at the corner of what is now Main and Limerock streets, and which was soon after transferred together with 100 acres of land for 10 pounds. We find in this book under date of 1768 several instances of barter with the Indians, ducks, blankets, etc., being exchanged for rum and molasses.

A quaint entry is that of the unfortunate Lamson which reads: "An

THE TRAGEDY AT THE LAKE

Being a More Detailed Account of Search For Young Knight's Body and the Clearing of a Mystery.

The recovery of the body of Milton Knight, the schoolboy who was drowned in Chickawauke Lake three weeks ago has been almost the sole topic of conversation on the street since the announcement was made in Tuesday's issue of The Courier-Gazette, and everybody has been congratulating everybody else that the mystery is cleared up and that the Knight boy's two companions have been freed from suspicion.

Mayor Carver emphasizes the point, and it is exceedingly well taken, that James Barter in particular should be viewed in the light of a hero, for he not only rescued Oscar Rackliffe who was clinging to the sinking boat, but made a desperate attempt to save Knight, as well.

The story told by Barter and Rackliffe led to the eventual recovery of the body, a circumstance which is doubly fortunate as the boys would probably have been under suspicion the remainder of their lives. Everybody is pleased that such theories were groundless.

Another newspaper has persisted in the statement that the search would have been discontinued, regardless. It is a fact that members of the City Government, in session Monday night, felt, with the solitary exception of Mayor Carver, that everything humanly possible had been done. Because of his persistence and faith the search was to be continued until the diver said it was useless.

The Police Department has worked in absolute accord with Mayor Carver's instructions, actual work at the lake being under the direction of Patrolman John A. Post who had been on the spot since the drowning was reported, and whose assistance in the dragging and diving operations has been of inestimable value. Patrolman Charles S. Stetson and Special Officer George E. Kinney also took part in the dragging for the first few days. On one of the Sunday's the following receipt:

Thomaston, July 10, 1793

In the list of accounts from 1785 to 1795 appear the names of the following, many of whom no doubt are well remembered by those living to-day: Hugh Kilsen, John Blackington, Benj. Packard, Comfort Barrows, Sam'l Bartlett, Ephraim Gay, Thomas Hix, Marlborough Packard, Curtis Johnson, Luther Hayden, Constant Rankin, Jos. Pillsbury, Isaiah Tolman, Joseph Ingraham, John White, Charles Jameson and Jonathan Spear.

Peace to their ashes.

THE CHRISTMAS MAIL

Uncle Sam Issues Some Instructions As To the Sending Of It.

The Post Office department sends out the following timely information as to the sending of Christmas mail.

All parcels must be securely wrapped or packed. Use strong paper and heavy twine.

Umbrellas, canes, golf sticks, should be reinforced with full length of strong tape or cloth tightly wrapped and tied to withstand transportation.

Hats: Pack in strong corrugated or fiber boxes. Ordinary pasteboard hat boxes must be easily damaged by strong moisture.

Shoes: Pack in strong boxes, preferably corrugated cardboard. Wrap with strong paper securely tied with heavy twine.

Cut flowers: Place in strong suitable boxes of wood, tin, or heavy corrugated cardboard. Wrap with strong moisture.

Candies: Enclose in strong outside boxes or containers.

Drawings, paintings, unmounted maps, etc.: Pack or wrap in strong material to avoid damage. When not flat, roll around a wooden core and then wrap the carefully or place in strong pasteboard tube.

Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools must have points and edges fully guarded to prevent injury to clerks in handling or damage to other mail. Crates suitably or thoroughly wrap so that they can not cut through the wrapping.

Articles easily broken or crushed must be crated or securely wrapped. Use liberal quantities of excelsior, or like material, in and around between the articles and the outside container.

Glassware, fragile toys, crockery must be packed so as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces if broken in transit.

Cigars: Ordinary boxes of cigars wrapped in paper only will not be accepted. Pack in a manner to prevent damage by shock or jar. Wrap in corrugated pasteboard or similar material.

All articles easily broken or damaged must be plainly marked "Fragile."

Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery will not be accepted for mailing. Wrap or pack carefully, according to contents, and plainly mark all such parcels "Perishable." Use special-delivery stamps to expedite delivery.

No parcel may be more than 84 inches in length and girth combined. For delivery locally and in the first, second and third zones, 70 pounds is the maximum weight; in all other zones, 50 pounds.

During the holiday time the volume of mail increases approximately 200 percent. Therefore to insure delivery of their Christmas presents, cards, and letters by Christmas Day the public should Shop and Mail Early.

That Walker Launching

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

It would be a pleasure to shake the hand of Willis Snow who stood with me on the quarterdeck of the good ship J. B. Walker when she was launched. I remember well that tree which he writes in your recent issue, with the hawser attached, also the anchor as it plowed its way through the ground. Our neighbor across the way at Tenants Harbor was Mrs. O'Brien, widow of George O'Brien, who was a brother of the Hon. Edward O'Brien the shipbuilder. Mrs. O'Brien's brother, John Martin, known to us boys as Uncle Johnnie, chaperoned us at the launching that day. He had launched in ships from that yard before and knew what would happen to the people on the wharf when the ship took the water. He warned the crowd to "get a move on." They gave him the laugh, but when the tidal wave came Uncle Johnnie had the laugh on them. After a lapse of almost 50 years I find a "companion of the launch." I hope sometime to meet Capt. Snow and "gam" about the occasion.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

Knox County Organized For Its Annual Help In a Great Cause.

Thanksgiving time opens the annual sale of Christmas Health Seals. Mrs. Harriet Fenderson, field secretary of the Maine Public Health Association, has been in Knox County this week organizing the work of sale and announces to The Courier-Gazette the following general chairman and bond chairman of the several towns:

Rockland—Miss Ellen J. Cochran; bonds, Mrs. E. C. Moran, Jr.

Thomaston—Miss Harriet Burgess; schools, Mrs. Martha Carter; bonds, Russell Gray.

South Thomaston, St. George, Cushing, Friendship, Owl's Head school district—Frank L. Morse, school superintendent.

Vinalhaven—E. A. Smalley.

North Haven—Philip W. Bradbury.

Union—W. E. Haskell.

Warren and E. Union—Frank E. Rowe, superintendent.

Rockport—G. L. Hale.

Camden—C. E. Lord; bonds, Mrs. A. L. Anderson.

Appleton and Washington—D. H. Matheson.

"The best blood in America," says Mrs. Fenderson, "trails to the colors each year at the Christmas seal season. Thousands of national, state and community leaders in all walks of life volunteer year after year for service on committees which undertake the sale of seals and health bonds in their own towns.

"Funds brought in by these wonderful volunteers have been used in the fight against the causes of tuberculosis and other preventable sickness which lie in wait. Here in Maine we have witnessed remarkable results from this fight. Our State now has the lowest death rate east of the Mississippi and some of the Great Lakes. The fight is being won but it is not yet over. Lives are still being needlessly sacrificed in Maine to this destroyer of health and happiness. The association appeals for the largest sale of seals and health bonds ever recorded."

The funeral services of the Knight boy will be held at the Littlefield Memorial Church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. O. W. Stuart officiating.

The verdict of Medical Examiner H. W. Frohock was "accidental drowning."

THE "DRYS" MAY BOLT

Third Ticket More Than Likely If Governor Smith of New York Is Nominated For the Presidency.

Flat prediction that if Gov. Smith is nominated by the Democratic Convention there will be an independent dry Democratic ticket in the field against him was made by close friends of William Gibbs McAdoo in Washington Monday.

Some of Mr. McAdoo's friends asserted that he is seriously considering making the fight himself, should his efforts to beat Smith in the convention fail. The best opinion seemed to be, however, that he would be satisfied to support some other dry Democrat and would only run himself in the event that he could not find any other dry Democrat with sufficient strength to insure Smith's defeat.

Friends of Senator Heflin, of Alabama, insist that Mr. Heflin will make the race as an independent dry Democrat if Smith is named at the convention, and they were confident, although admitting they had not discussed this contingency with Mr. McAdoo, that President Wilson's son-in-law would be entirely satisfied with Mr. Heflin.

The Alabama Senator has been making a stumping tour since the Congress recess which took in many of the northern and western States as well as the South. It is the intention of the dry Democrats who propose an independent ticket, should the Democrats name a wet, not only to put up candidates for electors in the southern States, but in most of the northern and western States as well.

They believe that there are a great many dry Democrats outside the South who would never be willing to vote the Republican ticket, but who would gladly vote for an independent Democratic candidate who held their views on prohibition. The Palmer and Buckner candidacy in 1896 was held up as a striking example.

Meanwhile there are mutterings that there may be a fourth ticket in the field headed by Senator George W. Norris, of Nebraska. Mr. Norris with Senator Borah heads the Radical-Progressive bloc in the Senate, and has been acclaimed as the bloc's candidate for the Republican nomination.

Curiously enough Senator Norris was not a supporter of Senator LaFollette in 1924, although he agreed with many of the issues on which the elder LaFollette was running. He did not support President Coolidge either, contenting himself with making his own race for re-election to the Senate, and virtually ignoring the Presidential battle. Nor did Mr. Norris bolt in 1912, though he was opposed to President Taft on almost every conceivable issue.

The Nebraska Senator is loath to give his approval unless he sees eye to eye with the man he gives it to on not less than 99 per cent of the controversial questions on which his views are known. LaFollette did not grade higher than about 90 per cent, so he stayed put. Roosevelt in 1912 did not grade anything like that high in Mr. Norris's scale.

If Mr. Norris is a candidate it is regarded as almost certain that he would have considerable support from the more prominent figures among the Middle Western Progressives. Senator Smith Wildman Brookhart, of Iowa, is his enthusiastic admirer. It is doubtful if Senator Borah would bolt and support him, for he is almost as loath to bolt as Norris has been himself.

But Mr. Norris feels that the great issue in this country is the plain people against the capitalists who exploits them, and he feels that some one should carry the standard in such a fight. He has no illusions as to where he would come out in such a battle as he is thinking of entering.

WHICH WAS WHICH

Twins Arrested In Appleton, But the Knot Was Untangled.

A grandson of Jesse Jones of Appleton backed out of his driveway in a flivver Monday morning, headed for his school. As he did so a truck loaded with pulpwood approached him on the incline and a collision followed, which is said to have been due to faulty brakes. The flivver was damaged, and the truck turned turtle in the gutter.

When young Jones came to take account of stock he thought he saw double for the two men who extricated themselves from the pulp wood were "counterparts, and young Jones couldn't tell tother from which. Consequently he was faced with the problem of which was the driver. Judge Miller fined him $5 and costs, the latter amounting to $167. Mitchell appealed, and furnished nominal bail.

Further complications were averted when the former admitted he was the driver. Judge Miller fined him $5 and costs, the latter amounting to $167. Mitchell appealed, and furnished nominal bail.

Dr. Franz Leyonborg, who has been located in North Haven for nearly nine years will soon transfer his office to Liberty. The doctor was in the city Tuesday on his way to New York where for two or three weeks he will observe the latest methods in Bellevue Hospital. Mrs. Leyonborg accompanied him as far as Hartford, Conn., where she will visit her sister and daughter. Just prior to their departure from the island Dr. Leyonborg was presented by friends with a very substantial purse, the presentation speech being made by Horner Crockett. Dr. Leyonborg is a native of Mariestad, Sweden, and was located in Portland 12 years before coming to North Haven. His ready faculty for making friends assures him a cordial reception in Liberty.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

A THANKSGIVING FOR HIS HOUSE
Lord, thou hast given me a cell
Wherein to dwell;
And thou hast given me a roof
Wherein to dwell;
Under the spars of which I lie
Both soft and dry
Where thou, my chamber for to ward,
Has set a guard
Of harmless thoughts, to watch and keep Me while I sleep.
Low is my porch, as is my fate,
Both void of state,
And yet the threshold of my door
Is worn by the poor.
Who blither come, and freely get
Good words or meat.
Like as my parlour, so my hall,
And kitchen smelt,
A little butter, and therein
A little bit.
Which keeps my little loaf of bread
Unchill, unfeared,
Some brittle sticks of thorn or brier
Make me a fire.
Close by whose living coal I sit,
And glow like fire.
Lord, I confess, too, when I dine
The pulse is thine,
And all those other bits that be
There placed by thee.
The words, the purlin, and the seat;
Which of thy kindness thou hast sent;
And my content
Makes those, and any beloved best,
To be more sweet.
Thou thou that crown'st my glittering
With guileless mirth;
And giv'st me wassail bowls to drink,
Spiced to the brink,
Lord, Thy plenty-dropping hand
That sows my land;
All this, and better, dost thou send
Me for this end:
That I should render for my part
All that I heart,
Which, fired with income, I resign
As wholly thine;
But the acceptance—that must be,
O Lord, by thee.

THANKSGIVING DAY

As we gather about the family board today let us remember the houseless and homeless and un-befriended, and be sure that we have done something to make sunshine in their hearts, no matter what November gloom may reign within. And as we grasp the hand and look into the eyes of friends and kinsmen, be this the greeting we give: "Brother, whatever else our homes provide today of plenty and good cheer, let us provide things honest, in the sight of all men; let all bitterness and wrath and clamor and evil-speaking be put away from us with all malice; and let us be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another."—H. C. Potter, D. D.

There remains only a finishing touch here and there to bring to completion the work which a year ago began upon the two remaining wings of the Knox County General Hospital. Progress of the work has been noted from time to time in these columns. As the hour approaches in which to write the word fits to it, there will be general rejoicing felt by the people of the county over the success with which the efforts of those charged with the responsibility of the task has been visited. Here is a hospital that in its completeness of detail and efficiency of management needs to take second place with none. Of the details of the new work and the potentialities of the finished institution further allusion will be made. It is proposed to dedicate the hospital to its enlarged service through some simple public ceremony, on which occasion there will be a general invitation to citizens of the county to inspect the completed hospital, which will be thrown open for that purpose. Announcement of the day will soon be made.

Today begins the statewide campaign for sale of Christmas Health Seals, annually carried on in the sixteen counties. The Courier-Gazette has received no information as to the organization of the sale for Knox County, but takes it for granted that arrangements have as usual been made, and that in the several towns opportunity is to be given our people as in the past to share in this splendid work, carried on here as a part of the nationwide machinery for the stamping out of tuberculosis. When a Maine citizen invests one dollar or five dollars, as the case may be, in Christmas Seals, he helps finance a chest clinic, or an open air school, or forwards child health education, or some preventive work which is being carried on right here in Maine, for all of these activities are a part of the program of the Maine Public Health Association, formerly known as the State Anti-Tuberculosis Association. Let us lend a hand. (Since this was put in type particulars have been received as to Knox County, as appears in another column.)

The disaster by flood that has fallen upon Vermont supplies sufficient reason for the survey of Maine's ability to control flood waters, which is to be undertaken at once by the Maine development commission. Paul L. Bean of Lewiston, who will have charge of the survey, states that storage reservoirs and dams prevented similar catastrophes in this State and benefited the rivers and the valley industries by providing an ample supply of water for use this winter.

President Coolidge's statement made Tuesday to the newspaper men ought to confirm his midsummer declaration. That he does not propose to have his name put forward for nomination seems clear enough. The fact that the people want Mr. Coolidge for another term, and that his party is keenly alive to that fact, is responsible for the reluctance to accept his indicated refusal as final.

Somebody who induced a ship's steward to try smuggling diamonds by concealing them in his shoes may have remembered the once-popular song concerning the lady who had rings on her fingers and gems on her toes.—Boston Transcript.

Will it be regarded as presumptuous if we question the accuracy of a Boston contemporary's adventure into the classics? In our edition of Mother Goose the lady of Banbury Cross had rings on her fingers and bells on her toes.

The best time to take out life insurance is when you are young. Then you are in good health and able to qualify for a policy. Late it may not be so easy. And when you're young the premiums are small.

This issue of The Courier-Gazette goes to press late Wednesday afternoon, heading off Thanksgiving Day. Related news items will appear in Saturday's issue.

COUNTY MEDICS MET

Dr. C. D. North Heads Association the Coming Year.

The annual meeting of the Knox County Medical Association was held in this city Tuesday, with the profession well represented. The doctors gathered at Knox Hospital in the afternoon and observed with much interest the clinic conducted by Dr. Neil A. Fogz from 4 until 5 o'clock.

Adjournment was then made to the Thordike Hotel where a banquet was served and where Dr. Herbert Twitchell, president of the Maine Medical Association, was guest of honor. These officers were elected at the annual meeting which followed.

President—Dr. Charles D. North of Rockland.

Vice President—Dr. A. F. Green of Camden.

Secretary and Treasurer—Dr. F. F. Brown of Rockland.

Dr. Neil A. Fogz was elected a member of the board of censors, and Dr. North and Dr. William Ellingwood were elected delegate and alternate, respectively, to the annual meeting of the Maine Medical Association which will be held at Belgrade Lakes in June.

President Twitchell gave an interesting resume of the work of the Maine Medical Association.

ON MY SET

Conditions Tuesday night were rarely good, with little or no static and an abundance of volume. I was so well pleased with the programs being furnished by the accustomed stations that I did not start "roaming" until quite late. I then listed these stations: WJZ, WBZ, WGY, WEAF, WHBP, WTAM, WOR, WADC, WHT, WMCA, WGN, WCB, WEAO, WMBB, WKBM, WOC, WBBM, WCX, KYW and WCAE. WKBM may have been on my old list, but I do not recall it. The location is Newburgh, N. Y.

I listened to WOC for the first time in many weeks, and found that it was coming in with the strength that one would ordinarily find on WJZ or WBZ.

The pullman car comedians were furnishing lots of fun. I've got to go and tell the conductor there's something wrong with the window in No. 10," said one. "A woman asked me to raise it and it worked."

WBBM was entertaining with an excellent quartet, which would have appreciated more if WTAM hadn't butted in on "Sweet Genevieve." Yet I cannot justly find fault with the Cleveland station, for it is one of my four best.

To my kind friend H. K. Washburn of Portland I am again under obligations, this time for "Stevenson's Bulletin of Radio Broadcasting Stations." It is a book of 64 pages with an abundance of radio information.

Under yesterday's date Hilliard R. Spear of Warren writes:

"One of my ambitions was realized this morning, when at 2:07 the call letters KFRC came clearly over the air and to my static tired ears.

"Can you explain this one? At 3:02 a. m. I heard somebody playing on a piano. Going up and down the scale. This was on the 325.9 wave. On the same wave at 3:10 I heard it again. Then at 3:13 came the announcement: KOA, Denver. Nothing more. I began to think the ghosts were in my set. I think I had rather good reception from 1230 to 2:15. Logged: WNAC, WEEI, WASH, WEAF, WPG, WAB, WCFR, WEAF, WJZ, WAB, W318 and WCV, (12 stations including a Montreal station.)

"I logged WBAF, Fort Worth last Friday night and KRLD, Dallas, the next night. That 53 night broke my spirit (temporarily) for stations although I now have 53. This has been done in 34 nights (and mornings.)

Golden Rod Chapter, O. E. S., will meet Friday evening with work, and supper at 6:30, in charge of Mrs. George L. St. Clair.

The Registration Board is in session for those who wish to enroll for the city election. Those who go early will avoid the "rush." The hours are 9 to 1, 2 to 5 and 7 to 9. The place is City Hall, up one flight.

News was received here Wednesday of the death of Howard Rackliffe in Virginia. The deceased was a son of Mrs. Emily Rackliffe of Point Thordike, who survives him, together with his wife and one child.

Automobile license plates for 1928 may be placed on automobiles Dec. 25, according to an act passed by the last legislature. The plates will go on sale earlier than formerly to eliminate congested conditions in registration offices later in December.

Abram Cassman was arrested yesterday upon complaint of David Shafter and Samuel Shafter, who is charged with vexing and annoying. The trial will take place Friday at 9 a. m. The arrest is a sequel to the one round and one-sided bout recently staged by Cassman and David Shafter at Perry's coal office.

A vesper service of note will be given at the Universalist Church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, featuring Cohen's "Song of Thanksgiving" by a double quartet composed of Mrs. Katherine Vezie and Mrs. Helen Wentworth, soprano; Mrs. Gladys St. C. Morgan and Mrs. Lena True, contralto; Chester Wyllie and E. R. Vezie, tenor; and John Robinson and E. F. Berry, bass. There will be several other musical numbers including a solo by Mrs. Wentworth, a young people's chorus under the direction of Mrs. Coppins, and instrumental numbers by Miss Margaret Stahl, organ, Miss Mabel F. Lamb, piano, and A. R. Marsh, violin.

The annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in Temple Hall next Monday night. A chicken dinner will be served by the Eastern Star at 6:30 and everybody knows what that means. At the conclusion of the supper the report by Secretary Hewett will be read and the meeting will be addressed by Clyde H. Smith, chairman of the State Highway Commission, whose subject will be "Highway Problems." He is thoroughly acquainted with Maine's highway problems. Interspersed will be singing, led by Homer E. Robinson and Lewis B. Cook. Many have the impression that this meeting is only for the members of the Chamber of Commerce. It is an open meeting and all who are interested in good roads are invited (whether in Rockland or elsewhere in Knox County). After the address there will be an open forum where Mr. Smith will answer the questions you may have in mind regarding the roads of Maine. Tickets may be obtained from the committee, from the Secretary, or at the door on the evening of the meeting.

Open house was kept at the Home for Aged Women on North Main street Tuesday, when many contributions were made by friends. Vegetables, fruit, groceries of all kinds, jellies, preserves, pickles etc. found their way there. Notable among the gifts were the Thanksgiving dinner given by the City Club, a large box of assorted vegetables by LaForet Thurston, and the contribution by the Primary department of the Congregational Sunday School, which consisted of jellies, figs, tarts, turnips and a small sum of money. It was a fine object lesson for others. In the afternoon, many useful articles such as aprons, towels, holders, and many other things, which any housewife might like, besides corn balls and candy were for sale, the receipts from which amounted to a little more than $34. Some articles still remain unsold, and may be obtained from the ladies. Tea and cookies were served. The inmates of the Home mingling with the guests made a pleasing social time, and a real "Thanksgiving spirit" pervaded the air. The ladies wish to thank all who contributed to the cause, and they are highly pleased with the result of the sale.

The big turkey in the window of M. B. & C. O. Perry's market has attracted an unusual amount of attention, and is all puffed up with conceit because of the admiring glances cast by the flappers, et als. Fortunately for his lordship he sees not the shadow of the axe.

Dr. R. W. Bickford left Monday on an outing which will take him to several places, including Madison, where he will be the guest of Dr. Lancaster. Dr. Bickford took along a gun in the event that his car should be held up by a moose. Some persons might call it a gunning trip, but Dr. Bickford doesn't pose as a mighty hunter.

The Curtiss biplane which wafted its way over the city just before noon Tuesday was operated by George W. Snow, treasurer of the Snow-Hudson Company who had just bought it in Norridgewock. He was accompanied on the flight to Rockland by his brother Fred A. Snow, Jr., the trip being made in a trifle better than an hour. Landing was made in a field on the New County Road. Mr. Snow's interesting career as an army flier was described at length in these columns early in the summer. He is an enthusiast on the subject, and wants to see Rockland made an airport. In fact he is chairman of a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce having that enterprise in view.

Gov. Brewster's latest batch of appointments includes Roy M. Hescok of Monson as a commissioner of pharmacy, Edward C. Payson, Vivian L. Lodge and John Guistin of Rockland are named as justices of the peace and L. True Spear of Rockport is appointed notary public.

A special meeting of the Knox Bar Association was held Tuesday, when Christopher Roberts was elected librarian, to succeed the late O. H. Tripp. Ensign Otis had been named for that position, as well as treasurer, but did not feel like handling both jobs, and Mr. Roberts was chosen to fill the vacancy. Mr. Roberts recently moved to this city from Vinhaven.

A directory telling who's who in art, which will appear in January of the coming year is being compiled by the alumni of the Massachusetts School of Art. It will contain the names of artists who are eligible for work in its different branches. The directory will be distributed among teachers, agencies and industries. It is gratifying to note that the name of a Rockland artist, Ada C. Burpee, will be found there.

James Lawrence of Ulmer street, returning to his home Friday night and walking on the roadside at the junction of Park street and New County road was knocked down by the forward mud guard of a Ford sedan, the driver of which was watching the locomotives on the siding and became heedless of pedestrians. Mr. Lawrence slipped by the blow, was taken to his home by the driver of the car, where he soon recovered sufficiently to assure his family there were no serious injuries.

President Sills Monday broke ground for Bowdoin's new union, the gift of Augustus F. Moulton '73 of Portland. The president was surrounded by a cheering student body. Philip S. Wilder, acting alumni secretary, turned the first shovelful of dirt on behalf of Bowdoin alumni and Howard M. Mostrom '28, chairman of the student board, acted for the undergraduates. The Cummings Construction Company of Ware, Mass., has been awarded the contract for the work, which is to be commenced immediately. The new building will probably be ready for use by November, 1928.

THOMAS RESIGNS

Herbert A. Thomas has resigned as Camden town manager and accepted a similar position in Rumford Falls with an increase of salary. Mr. Thomas came to Camden in April 1925, and Camden was the fifth town in the state to adopt the town manager form of government. Since his coming the taxes have been reduced. Mr. Thomas is a man of integrity and fine business principles, and the townspeople are very sorry to have him leave.

Under average conditions hens lay best during their first year of production, after which production decreases gradually each succeeding year. It is important, therefore, to cull the laying flocks closely at least once annually to remove those hens which will not produce profitably the following year and to replace them with the more profitable producing pullets.

ROCKPORT

Mrs. Charles Berry motored to Haverhill, Mass., Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Berry of Camden to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Marion Ingraham is at home from Gorham Normal School to spend Thanksgiving with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Enos E. Ingraham.

The Trytohelp Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ethel Spear and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mabel Crone; vice president, Miss Helen Small; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Spear. The Club already has fifteen members and new ones are being added at each meeting. They will be entertained next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Edith Overlook.

George Turner is moving from the Robinson house on Pleasant street to a part of the Haskell house on Commercial street.

Mrs. J. L. Moody has gone to Boston to visit her little daughter Irene who is at the Massachusetts General Hospital for treatment.

Mr. Lawrence Wentworth and daughter Florence have gone to Brunswick where Mr. Wentworth has a position with the Central Maine Power Co.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Wilson and grandson Donbury Libby left Wednesday for Laconia, N. H., to visit their daughter Mrs. Hazel Libby. Mrs. Wilson will remain for several weeks. Mr. Wilson's visit to extend only over the holiday.

All the world's a stage, but the majority of us sit in the gallery and throw things at the performers.

DIED

Sawyer—Vinhaven, Nov. 19, Emily, wife of Horace F. Sawyer. Burial at Millbridge. Hart—Appleton, Nov. 23, Sarah C. widow of James Hart, aged 89 years, 8 months, 13 days. Funeral Sunday at 12 o'clock from the church.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to extend my thanks to all the doctors, nurses and friends who were so very kind to me while I was in Knox Hospital.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our loving mother, Mrs. Helen W. Davis, who passed to her Heavenly home five years ago Nov. 22.

My Mother's Hands

Such beautiful, beautiful hands! They're neither white nor small; And you, I know, would scarcely think That they were fair at all; I've looked on hands whose form and hue A sculptor's dream might be, Yet are these wrinkled, aged hands Most beautiful to me.

Such beautiful, beautiful hands! Though heart we weary and sad, These patient hands kept telling on, That the children might be glad. I always weep, as looking back To childhood's distant day, I think how these hands rested not When mine were at their play.

Such beautiful, beautiful hands! They're growing feeble now, For time and pain have left their mark On hands, and heart, and brow. Alas! alas! the nearing time, And the sad, sad day to me, When 'neath the daisies, out of sight, These hands will folded be.

But oh, beyond this shadow land, Where all is bright and fair, I know full well these dear old hands Will palm of victory bear; Where crystal streams through endless years Flow over golden sands, And where the old grow young again, I'll clasp my mother's hands.

New England's Own and Only Cement Mill

At last New England's hopes are realized. For years New England's architects, engineers, builders and contractors have wanted a home-produced cement.

They knew that the raw materials existed. They knew it could be done. But nobody did it until the makers of Dragon Cement started the big mill at Thomaston, Maine. And from there, soon, will come the same Dragon which New England has used in ever-growing volume since 1889.

There never was a better cement than Dragon. Now it is a home product. We are glad to sell it and recommend it for its strength, speedy hardening, fineness and uniformity. Its use speeds and improves the job.

Pioneer Grange held a very pleasant meeting last Tuesday evening when it presented a competitive program divided into three sections—the red, white and blue. Each person wore an arm-band of crepe paper, the color of their section. Winona Gould was leader of the reds. Mrs. Livingstone the whites, and Amelia Dorman had charge of the blues. It being Armistice night the numbers on the program were mostly patriotic and all were well received. As the decision was made in favor of the reds, the losers will furnish the social time at the meeting this Tuesday night.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Annie Kwinski of 526 1st Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., writes as follows: "I will try that so weak and run-down that she was not able to do her housework. She saw the name Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and said to her husband, 'I will try that medicine and see if it will help me.' She says she took six bottles and is feeling much better."

Mrs. Mattie Adams, who lives in Downing Street, Brewster, Ala., writes as follows: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and since taking it I feel like a different woman."

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she never had time to do before—read the new books, see the new plays, enjoy her grandchildren, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good.

Thousands of women past fifty, say they owe their health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Intermediate School—Richard Bucklin, The Tale of a Tadpole; Beatrice Haskell, The Minute; Christine Starrett, Wanted—A Minister's Wife; Edith French, Aunt Tabitha; music, Grammar School.

Grammar School—Mavis McMahon, A Reverie in Church; Lucy Grotton, Little Josie; Gracie Black, Popping Corn; Dorothy French, The Hymn of the New World; America, Schools and Audience.

First prize of $2 and second prize of $1 were awarded as follows: In the lower grades Ernest Robinson, first, Hillard Spear, second; first honorable mention, Katherine Peabody, second Virginia Wylie. In the higher grades Beatrice Haskell, first, Edith French, second; first honorable mention, Lucy Grotton; second Frank Batchelder.

The musical numbers of the different schools under the direction of Mrs. Vinal were a surprise indeed to the audience and were much enjoyed. The judges were Principal Clarence P. Danforth and Miss Margaret E. Johnson of the Union High School faculty, and Mrs. George A. J. Froberger.

The Union Contests

Much interest has been shown in the speaking contests which have been held in the different schools of Union during the last few weeks. Saturday night the final contest was held in Union Town hall. At this meeting speakers were chosen to represent Union at Warren Wednesday evening. Every school in town was represented at this meeting by two or more speakers. Supt. Rowe presided and briefly explained the contest.

The hall was filled to capacity and much interest in the schools was shown. The speakers were divided into three groups: Primary, Grammar and High School. The winners in each group were:

Primary—Dorothy Young, 1st; Dorothy Barker, 2d; Robert Mitchell and Chester Butler, honorable mention.

Grammar—Philip Creighton, 1st; Ruth Lovejoy, 2d; Avis Lovejoy and Richardson Miller, honorable mention.

High School—Margaret Webber, 1st; Winona Messer, 2d; Laura Faris and Evelyn Wincapaw, honorable mention. The High School orchestra furnished music during the program and for the dance which followed. The program follows:

WHAT, DANCING, "PASSAY?"

The dance is on the wane at the University of Chicago. The interclass hop, one of the four leading social events of the year, has been abolished. Arnold Johnson, president of the undergraduates council explained: "The hop is a 'hop.' It doesn't pay for itself. Last time we had to make up a $300 deficit."

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE

Whereas, John L. Erickson and Asenath A. Erickson, both of Union, in the County of Knox, and State of Maine, by their mortgage deed, dated March 9th, 1923, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds, for Knox County, in Book 197, Page 323, conveyed to it the undersigned:

A certain lot or parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in Union, County of Knox, and State of Maine, and bounded and described as follows, to wit:—Beginning at a stake and stone, thence running West one hundred and thirty three rods, thence North five rods to a stake, thence West ninety four rods to Pettengill Stream, thence northerly and easterly by said stream to the town line, thence southeasterly on said line to a stake, thence by Sibley's land westerly about sixty rods to corner, thence south to the first mentioned bounds containing one hundred and twenty-five acres, more or less.

Reserving from the above described lot a parcel of land desired to Merle Robbins, containing about one half acre more or less.

And the woodlot sold to John Upham. Being the same premises conveyed by William E. Miller to E. John and Matilda M. Erickson, by deed dated March 23, 1921, recorded in Book 188, Page 415.

And Whereas, the condition of said mortgage has been broken. Now Therefore, by reason of a breach of the condition thereof, we claim a Foreclosure of said mortgage.

Friends of L. E. Smith will regret to learn of his very serious illness. Mrs. Lizzette Rollins arrived Saturday morning from New York called here by the illness of her mother Mrs. George Green.
Mrs. Aubrey Curtis left by boat for Boston Monday night where she will join her husband (Dr. A. E. Curtis) and will pass the winter there.
Miss Lillian Rowell was the weekend guest of Mrs. Albert Davis on Metline.
Everything is all set for the annual winter sale of the Ladies' Aid. In Grange hall Friday afternoon there will be a sale of fancy articles, novelties, home made candy and aprons, followed by the usual good supper. In the evening a fine program consisting of musical numbers readings and a two act comedy entitled "Listen Ladies" will be given. The following ladies have the parts and local celebrities will receive due attention and should be present: Mrs. L. G. Coombs, Mrs. Emma Knowlton, Mrs. Lotta Crowley, Mrs. Eva Sleeper, Mrs. Bernice Sleeper, Misses Lillian Rowell, Susie Sleeper, Marie Brown, Mildred Smith, Mrs. Isabel Jackson, M's. Ella Watts has charge of the entertainment.
Seldom has a group of people gathered so joyfully at the Grange hall as they did Saturday night when a utility shower was given for Miss Miriam Crockett, whose marriage to Ralph Cline of Wheeler's Bay is to take place Wednesday night. About 75 people attended and the numerous beautiful gifts evidenced the great esteem in which Miss Crockett is held by the people here. Refreshments were served in the dining hall. The night before a group of Mr. Cline's friends from Pleasant Beach and vicinity gave the young couple a similar shower at the home which they are to occupy immediately.

NORTH WALDOBORO
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Walter have gone to Lawrence, Mass., for a visit. Miss Velma Ames who has had employment at D. O. Stahl's has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Carroll of Union and Bert Bogue were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Teague. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sprague of Winslow visited Sunday at Belle Sprague's.
Clarence Shuman and Perl Carroll were in Bowdoinham, Tuesday. Tave Shuman is passing the winter with Nelson Kaler.
George Eugley who has been seriously ill is able to be out again. Mr. and Mrs. George Benner and daughter Orville and Clarence Shuman were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Philbrook in Union.

SOUTH WALDOBORO
Mrs. Dan Giroux and daughter Jacqueline have returned to their home in Waterville after spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burns.
Mrs. Ernest Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smalley were in Waterville Sunday.
Miss Helen Cleveland of Nobleboro spent the weekend with Mrs. Reginald Monahan.
W. G. Wallace, Miss Dorothy Wallace, Mrs. Albert Genthner and Edward Genthner motored to Portland Sunday.
Friends are all glad to hear that Sidney Simmons is recovering from his recent illness.

SYLVESTER OVERLOCK
Sylvester Overlock, 76, who died Nov. 8 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Melvin Philbrook in Union, was a native of Washington, one of a family of nine children. Eleven years ago with his wife he went to live with their daughter who tenderly cared for them in their declining years. Mrs. Overlock died four years ago leaving him in failing health. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Melvin Philbrook of Union and Mrs. Walter Light of Bristol, five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, also a sister Mrs. Warren Clark of Union and several nieces and nephews.

Miss Ella Pottle who has been a patient for about three weeks at the Waldo County Hospital arrived home last week.
Fred Wiggin who has been in Pittsfield for a few days arrived home Friday.
Bad colds and several cases of grippe are reported throughout the town.
Ellis Eastford and family have gone to Dixmont where they will pass the winter.
Don't forget the dance at the Grange Hall Thanksgiving night. Good music and first-class management is always in order at Tranquility.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Cuddy of Bangor were recent guests of Mrs. Effie Grey.
Tranquility Grange is still on the boom and at a recent meeting the third and fourth degrees was conferred on 17 candidates. The past year has been one of the most successful on record with the increase of membership, the large attendance at its regular meetings, and the interest manifested by Worthy Master Parker Young and his staff of officers and members have worked very harmoniously. Our young members, who are possessed of great musical ability and literary talent, have proved themselves loyal to the order; they have presented two dramas during the year thereby enlarging the treasury funds. Next Saturday evening the young people will have charge of the program and we older people will have to sit up and take notice. Last Saturday the "old people" presented the program and a very long and enthusiastic one was rendered. Worthy Master Parker Young was the live wire, as was Postmaster R. S. Knight, who is always in good humor; a paper entitled "The Tranquility Advertiser" edited by Mrs. R. S. Knight showed her good wit and was greatly applauded; an original write-up by Hon. J. S. Mullen, "A Challenge to Youth," was a scream and caused great merriment with our young class; an original character sketch by Parker Young and Hugh Pendleton deserves special mention; reading by Mrs. Emma (Willey) Simmons, also readings by Mrs. Agnes Eugley and Mrs. Hazel Pottle and Mrs. May Scruton were pleasingly rendered; a story by Mrs. Florence Allen and dialogue by Hugh Pendleton and Avis Frohock were also on the list. The male quartette sang several choice selections. Remarks by visiting members—Past Master Herbert Gould, James Morse, Mrs. Walter Young and Miss Rose Pillsbury of Megunticook Grange were greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

Eastern Dairies offers $1500.00 for a NAME

WHEN the eight New England dairies united to form Eastern Dairies, Inc., their object was to produce a perfect Ice Cream more wholesome, more delicious, more thrilling to the taste.

By this union we gained many advantages, such as the control of our own supply of pure, rich cream. It comes from inspected herds in the finest dairy lands of the world—northern New York and Vermont. Pure cream. Rich cream. All we can use.

This is one of the things that have helped us make great strides toward our ideal of a perfect Ice Cream. So now it deserves a name all its own. Hence this contest.

How To Enter Contest

READ and follow conditions of contest carefully. Then use coupon below or obtain printed coupon, free, from any Eastern Dairies dealer, giving additional suggestions which will help you. Get your thinking cap on. Try for the grand $1000 prize.

SUMMARY OF CONTEST CONDITIONS

1. Everybody in Eastern Dairies territory is eligible except employees. By entering, each contestant automatically agrees to allow Eastern Dairies, Inc., to use any brand name submitted.
2. Slogan answers are not required from contestants in the Name Contest, yet where identical names are submitted by two or more contestants, the judges' award will go to that one of such contestants submitting the best slogan.
3. Three judges will be selected and their decisions will be final.
4. A letter will be given the same consideration as a ballot.
5. Contest closes at midnight, November 30, 1927. Contestants may submit as many answers as they choose at any time up to the closing hour.

WASHINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keene of Union have moved to Washington where they plan to spend the winter with Mrs. Keene's grandfather, Algonquin Austin.

James Freeman, salesman, was an overnight guest at Sidney Kaler's recently.

Miss Marguerite Lincoln was at home over the weekend from Orono where she is attending school.

Alonso and William Hanson made a trip to Thorndike last week.

Miss Carrie Mears is at home from Augusta.

Miss Beulah Austin is at home from South Somerville where she is teaching for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mrs. Lydia Austin

Lydia, wife of Algonquin Austin, died at the home of her sister Mrs. Harvey Buhler in Warren, after a short illness. Although in poor health for a year or more, Mrs. Austin was able to be about until about six weeks ago, when she grew rapidly worse and was removed to the home of her sister. Loving care and medical skill proved of no avail and the end came peacefully on Nov. 11.

Mrs. Austin was a devoted wife and mother, a kind and sympathetic neighbor and friend. She leaves a husband and six children, four daughters and two sons. Much sympathy is felt for the youngest son, William, who has been disabled for years and to whom the loss of a mother means much.

Funeral services were held from the residence at Washington, Nov. 14. Rev. Mr. Webber of Union officiating and interment was at the village cemetery.

Vegetables never show up with splendor equal to the chromes in the seed catalogue.

AVOID UGLY PIMPLES

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Taken nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c, 50c, 60c.

IN THOMASTON

Colonel Gardiner Speaks Friday Night and Shows Paris Moving Pictures.

Col. William Tudor Gardiner, who is to speak in the interest of the Williams-Brasler Post of the American Legion, at Thomaston, Friday evening at 7.30, has a fine war record. Enlisting in August, 1917, as a private in the First Maine heavy field artillery at Brunswick, he served for nearly two years with this regiment, later reorganized as the 56th Pioneer Infantry and saw nine months service overseas. Six weeks after enlisting he was promoted to acting corporal, then sergeant and first sergeant. Declining to leave the regiment to attend officers' training school, in June 1918 he was commissioned colonel on the staff of Gen. Baxter. He is a past commander of the Gardiner Post, American Legion, and belongs to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Military Order of the World War and Sons of Veterans.

Col. Gardiner, Who Speaks in Thomaston Friday Night Under Auspices of Williams-Brasler Post.

Col. Gardiner received honorable discharge in May, 1919. He was appointed colonel on the staff of Gen. Baxter. He is a past commander of the Gardiner Post, American Legion, and belongs to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Military Order of the World War and Sons of Veterans.

Besides all that the colonel is a member of the Gardiner law firm of Andrews, Nelson & Gardiner, a second degree Mason, Shriner, Elk, Odd Fellows and a member of the Grand, State Chamber of Commerce, Maine Sheep and Wool Growers Association, Portland Athletic Club, and Maine Historical Society.

Col. Gardiner is a good speaker and the pictures taken by him of the 1927 Paris trip of the Legion and Auxiliary are most interesting. The public is cordially invited by the Post to attend. The entertainment will be free, with the exception of the home-made candy which will be sold by the members of the Auxiliary for the Williams-Brasler Memorial Public Library. The packages of candy will be nominally priced at ten cents, but the sky is the limit on library contributions from all who are interested to swell the fund that the Legion boys have started.

THE BACK SEAT GOOSE

Early Tuesday morning Main street passers-by were interested to see a nice fat duck perched upon the back seat of a closed car parked in front of the Stoughton Furniture Co. Presently the owner of the car (a popular salesman of crackers and cookies) got in and drove away, and a local gentleman of some renown.

As he took the wheel, his car to steer, he gave a shout of triumph, "Why of all the luck, for Thanksgiving I shall have a duck!"

This gentleman carried a dozen jigs (his last name happens to rhyme with Briggs) in a handsome man with a Studebaker and he's lucky "I'm most never ever. Now everyone has a seat on a pet, but an auto is the strangest yet."

Thanksgiving comes but once a year. The price of food is very dear. Imagine then the joy of a local gentleman of some renown.

PARK THEATRE

The feature attraction for today is Sally O'Neil and Owen Moore in "Becky".

One of the most thrilling love stories that ever became a best seller has been made into a vivid melodrama picture by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer under the title of "Body and Soul," and will be shown at the Park Friday only. The screen play was adapted from Katharine Newlin Burd's famous novel, "The Branding Iron," and features Allen Pritchard, Norman Kerry, Lionel Barrymore and T. Roy Barnes.

Set amid the impressive scenery of the Swiss Alps, it tells the tale of a peasant maid who marries a human derelict out of gratitude and then unwittingly arouses his jealousy to such a pitch that he brands her body with a white-hot iron so all men may know she is his. A mountaineer rescues the girl, spirits her away to his cabin and the two fall in love. How the husband appears on the scene, the sacrifice of the girl to save the man she loves and their eventual happiness make a powerful play of thrilling adventure, heroic rescues and intense romance. It affords the greatest opportunity of her career.

The vaudeville program Saturday afternoon and evening will be Beth Burleigh and Her Brownies, six girls in singing and dancing. Williams and Healey in "The Welsh Miners," Curtis and Lawrence in "The Bandit's Boy," and Harry Bolden in "The Bandit's Boy."

"Vaudeville's Most Versatile Colored Man," Tom Mix in "Silver Valley" will be on the screen.

STRAND THEATRE

Manager Dondis has signed up a noted screen star for his Thanksgiving attraction—Pauline Frederick, who appears in "The Nest." This is a family problem play with Miss Frederick in the role of a mother who fights to save her children from the punishment of their own selfishness. All-star cast includes Holmes Herbert and Jean Acker. Pictured from the Paris and New York stage success.

The Interferer cowboy that ever came to Flying J will be seen in the double bill Friday and Saturday. The star is Buffalo Bill, Jr. and the photograph is "The Interferer" Gent.

It is a trouble-bustin' story of the cattle country.

The other feature on this bill is "The Cabaret Kid." The story is a free adaptation of a play by John Hastings Turner. Miss Balfour is Fay Wynchebe, brought up in a poor orphanage in France, who turns out—this until the very end—to be the daughter of a ne'er-do-well brother of the Misses Wynchebe in Cornwall. We have glimpses of Sir

Trevor Trebarrow and his son, Jack, the picture's hero. Remains now only to bring Jack and Fay together, and Jack does that with "Windy Willie," a baby aeroplane all-important in the piece.—adv.

UNION The Community Club held a very enjoyable meeting with Mrs. Bernice Payson Tuesday afternoon, 25 being present with several visitors. The Thanksgiving program was very enjoyable. The paper on "Pilgrim Mothers," by Mrs. Clara Light was particularly interesting and much enjoyed. One new member was received. The next meeting will be held Dec. 13 at G. A. R. hall and it is hoped every member will be present as it will be an important business meeting.

At its meeting Monday evening Bethel Lodge of Rebekahs were honored by a visit from members of Rebekah Assembly of Maine, President Clara Croshaw, Warden Mrs. Flint, and Past President Mrs. Crosby. There were also visitors present from Mystic Lodge, Warren and a very pleasant and profitable evening was spent. Refreshments were served.

Storer Collins Post, America Legion held an interesting meeting Nov. 15 and elected officers for the coming year: Commander, Arthur Farris; vice commander, George Cameron; adjutant, Maynard Lucas; financial officer, Clarence Leonard; chaplain, John Howard. A social chat and refreshments were enjoyed. Mrs. Laura Daniels has returned from a ten days' visit in Massachusetts.

School Notes Union Primary School held a candy sale Nov. 18 for the purpose of raising money for the near East relief fund. This is the children's gift to less fortunate ones on Golden Rule Sunday, Dec. 4. Enough money was taken from the sale to fill the 12-inch rule with dimes, one for each inch.

The teacher wishes to thank the parents for their help in making candy for the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Fuller and son Bliss accompanied by Miss Ella Livingstone of East Union motored to Brunswick Sunday over the new Carlton Bridge.

Mrs. Nancy Ayer spent the weekend in Bath with her daughter Mabel who is supervisor of music in the schools there.

Mrs. Norrington Sidelinger is very ill.

Mrs. Albert Pitman and Miss Agnes Taylor of Appleton visited Mrs. Bertha Bryant Monday.

The Dorcas Club Monday afternoon at her home on Talbot avenue.

Mrs. Charles A. Rose left yesterday for Boston where she will visit for two weeks.

"Electricity!—"

The New Helper on the Farm"

Says William M. Jardine Secretary of Agriculture

"Electricity has already made important contributions both to labor saving on the farm and to a more modern, satisfying rural life. I am confident it is going to make further contributions of equal or greater importance."

What Mother Really Wants

Christmas 1927

This New Hotpoint Automatic Electric Range

Our special Christmas offer makes it an easy gift to give

Two-compartment utility drawer below the oven will save Mother many steps. For kitchen utensils, such as forks and spoons, are always available at the range when they are needed. In addition there is space in the lower compartment to store the broiler pan when it is not in use.

Smokeless Broiler Pan, an exclusive Hotpoint feature, assures better broiling without discomfort. The grease, instead of burning and causing smoke and odor, runs into the well in the bottom of the pan.

Cooking Chart. Detailed cooking information is printed on this slide in baked enamel so that it will always be legible. It tells the temperature at which various foods should be cooked, length of time, etc.

This four-piece condiment set for salt, pepper, sugar and flour has its regular place on the Hotpoint Range—always available for cooking uses.

Electric light to illuminate range top and inside deep kitchen utensils. Women who have this light on the highest priced Hotpoint range have been delighted with this added cooking convenience.

GIVE Mother the happiest Christmas she has ever had. Give her this beautiful all-white Hotpoint electric range. It will mean easier, better cooking with less time in the kitchen. She will have increasing pleasure for many years to come—more time for rest and recreation—more time to spend with her family.

To give you an opportunity to have this beautiful range, we are making a great special offer that will last from now until Christmas time. We are offering this special Christmas range, with many new and de luxe features without extra cost, at prices and terms within the reach of every family.

All of many advantages of the Hotpoint electric ranges are included in the Christmas range in addition to the features shown. Mother will have super-automatic cooking, done perfectly though she may be miles away—off shopping, out for recreation or away with the children. She will have fewer kitchen hours; easier cooking; better cooking—without watching or guessing; a range easily kept "as clean as a china plate;" cleaner utensils, cleaner walls and ceiling; cooking speed, accurate, dependable temperatures any time at the turn of a switch.

Here is our special offer. For we will deliver and install this range in your kitchen. Then you pay the balance in eleven easy installments.

Come in today and see this great range with its many new and special features. Let us tell you more about our special offer.

Automatic Electric Timer turns the oven on and off. Mother can prepare the meal and place it in the oven in the morning or at any convenient time—set the time and temperature controls and at dinner time the food will be cooked just right.

Automatic Heat Control and Thermometer. It maintains the heat at any desired temperature. Assures better results because the oven temperature is kept constant during the entire time of the cooking.

Accurate white enamel kitchen clock. This provides Mother with another convenience that she will appreciate. It will save her many steps running to other parts of the house to tell the time.

The Hotpoint Fireless-Type Cooker; first time offered as regular equipment without extra cost. Ideal for boiling, braising, pot-roasting, steaming, stewing and preparing soup. It helps make Hotpoint the most economical electric range.

This range is also equipped with Calrod oven units—cast in solid iron—practically indestructible.
